PRETRIAL REPORT ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that each party must file a pretrial report. Reports are due at least 14 days before the scheduled start of the trial or, if a final pretrial conference is scheduled, 7 days before the conference. The report must be signed by the attorney (or a party personally, if not represented by counsel) who will try the case. Sanctions, which may include the dismissal of claims and defenses, may be imposed if a pretrial report is not filed.

The report must include the following:

1. A short summary, not to exceed 2 pages, of the facts, claims, and defenses;
2. A statement of the issues;
3. The names and addresses of all witnesses expected to testify. Any witness not listed will not be permitted to testify absent a showing of good cause;
4. A statement of the background of all expert witnesses listed;
5. A list of exhibits to be offered at trial sequentially numbered according to General L. R. 26 where practicable;
6. A designation of all depositions or portions of transcripts or other recordings of depositions to be read into the record or played at trial as substantive evidence. Reading or playing more than 5 pages from a deposition will not be permitted unless the Court finds good cause;
7. An estimate of the time needed to try the case; and
8. If scheduled for a jury trial:
 - a. Proposed voir dire questions (filed as a separate document);
 - b. A proposed verdict form (filed as a separate document); and
 - c. Proposed jury instructions (filed as a separate document; include requested revisions to the Court's standard jury instructions—located at www.wied.uscourts.gov—as well as any additional instructions for the Court's consideration).
9. If scheduled for a bench trial, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law. (See Fed. R. Civ. P. 52).

In addition to completing a pretrial report, counsel are expected to confer and make a good faith effort to settle the case. Counsel are also expected to arrive at stipulations that will save time during the trial.
